As per the requirements of the SEBI ICDR Regulations, ‘group companies’ of an issuer company shall include such companies (other than the promoters and subsidiaries) with which there were related party transactions, during the period for which financial information is disclosed in the Issue Document(s), as covered under Ind AS 24, and also other companies as considered material by the Board.

The policy on identification of companies to be disclosed as group companies (other than those covered under Ind AS 24), as below, shall be disclosed in the Issue Documents.

Policy on materiality:

For the purpose of disclosure in the Issue Documents, a company shall be disclosed as a ‘Group Company’ in the Issue Documents if:

- (i) The Company has entered into related party transactions with companies (other than the corporate promoter and subsidiaries) as described under Ind AS 24 during any of the financial periods being included in the Issue Documents;
- (ii) any other company as may be identified as material by the Board.

In addition, for the purpose of (ii) above, a company (other than the corporate promoter, subsidiaries and companies categorised in (i) above) will be considered material and shall be disclosed as a group company in the Issue Documents if: (a) such company is a member of the promoter group in terms of Regulation 2(1)(pp) of the SEBI ICDR Regulations; and (b) the Company has entered into one or more transactions with such company during the last fiscal year and stub period, as applicable, in respect of which restated consolidated financial information is included in the Issue Documents, which cumulatively exceeds 10% of the total revenue of the Company for such period derived from the restated consolidated financial information.

Requirement:

As per the requirements of SEBI ICDR Regulations, the Company shall disclose the following pending litigation involving the Company, its Directors, Promoters and Subsidiaries in the Issue Documents (collectively "Relevant Parties"):

Further, as per the requirements of SEBI ICDR Regulations, the Company shall also disclose such outstanding litigation (including civil litigations or arbitration proceedings) involving the group companies which has a material impact on the Company. Any pending litigation (including civil litigations or arbitration proceedings) involving the group companies, as identified in accordance with provisions of SEBI ICDR Regulations, would be considered to have a 'material impact' on the Company for the purpose of disclosure in the Issue Documents, if an adverse outcome from such pending litigation would materially and adversely affect the business, operations, cash flows, performance, prospects, financial position or reputation of the Company.

Other than litigations mentioned in points (i) to (iv) above, any other pending litigation, as mentioned in (v), involving the Relevant Parties would be considered 'material' for the purpose of disclosure in the Issue Documents, if:

- (ii) Subjective threshold: such pending matters which are not quantifiable or do not exceed the monetary threshold, involving the Relevant Parties, whose outcome, in the opinion of the Board, would materially and adversely affect the Company's business, prospects, performance, operations, financial position, reputation or cash flows or the decision in such a proceeding is likely to affect the decision in similar proceedings, such that the cumulative amount involved in such proceedings exceeds the threshold, even though the amount involved in an individual proceeding does not exceed the threshold; or
- (iii) Additional threshold: there are any findings or observations arising out of any of the inspections by the Securities and Exchange Board of India or by any other regulator in or outside India, which are outstanding.

It is clarified that for the purpose of this Policy, pre-litigation notices received by the Relevant Parties from third parties (excluding those notices issued by governmental, statutory, regulatory, judicial, quasi-judicial or taxation authorities or notices threatening criminal action) shall, in any event, not be considered as litigation and evaluated for materiality, until such time that Relevant Parties are impleaded as defendants in litigation proceedings/investigation/regulatory action before any judicial/arbitral forum, tribunal or authority.
